

5.3 SOCIAL IMPACT OF EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

The social impact of extension activities can be significant, influencing various aspects of community life. The college provides an opportunity to make community people aware about various issues, challenges and opportunities through extension activities organized by different clubs and societies like NCC, NSS, Red Ribbon Club, Rovers and Rangers, Eco Club and Road and Safety Club. The Extension Activities that include rallies and awareness programmes while creating social impact are:

1. A One-Day Health Camp organized at Padhar on 18th July 2024 by Red Ribbon Club.

The health camp provided health services to the local people. The Red Ribbon Club of the college played a crucial role in conducting health check-ups, distributing medicines, and providing health-related information. Around 100 local people participated in the camp and received health services. The objective of the camp was to provide health services to the local people and educate them about health-related issues.

To

The Principal
Government Degree College
Drang at Narla
District Mandi, Himachal Pradesh

Date: 18 July 2024

Subject: Letter of Appreciation for Organising Health Outreach Programme

Respected Sir/Madam,

I am pleased to convey my sincere appreciation to you, the faculty members, and the student volunteers of Government Degree College, Drang at Narla, for successfully organising a Health Outreach Programme in collaboration with the Himachal Pradesh AIDS Control Society (HPSACS), Zonal Hospital Mandi, Civil Hospital Padhar, and Zonal Hospital Jogindernagar.

The outreach programme proved to be highly beneficial for the people of the Padhar region, as around 100 local residents availed themselves of essential healthcare services. Screening tests for HIV, Hepatitis, and blood sugar were conducted efficiently, along with health counselling and awareness. The active participation and dedicated service of the Red Ribbon Club, Rovers and Rangers, and other student volunteers of the college played a pivotal role in the smooth conduct of the programme.

Such collaborative initiative has contributed meaningfully to improve health awareness, strengthen community health services, access basic medical services in the region, and initiated commitment towards social responsibility and public welfare.

On behalf of Civil Hospital, Padhar, I extend my heartfelt appreciation to Government Degree College, Drang at Narla, and all collaborating departments and institutions for this valuable initiative. We look forward to continued cooperation in organising similar community-oriented health programmes in the future.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Abhay

2. Door-to-Door Awareness Campaign on Domestic Violence and Women Safety at Village Rigar on 23 Dec. 2025.

Drang at Narla College organised an awareness programme on Women Safety and Domestic Violence in Rigar village as part of its community outreach and social responsibility initiatives, following the adoption of the village for holistic social development. A dedicated team of faculty members, Prof. Sandeep Kumar, Prof Kanchana Devi and Prof Kanchan Kumari, visited households in the village to create awareness on key social issues such as prevention of domestic violence, respect for women, gender equality, and promotion of peaceful family relationships.

During the campaign, villagers were sensitised about the causes and consequences of domestic violence, the importance of treating women with dignity and respect, awareness of gender equality, and the need to promote peaceful, inclusive, and violence-free family environments. The interactive nature of the campaign encouraged open dialogue and active participation, allowing villagers to freely share their views and concerns. Overall, the community responded positively to the discussions and interactions.

Community feedback collected through oral interactions revealed that the villagers found the awareness programme both informative and relevant to their daily lives. The programme strengthened the bond between Narla College and the local community and reflected the institution's commitment to inclusive social development and extension activities in alignment with SAR quality benchmarks.

3. Viksit Bharat-Yuvasetu 22-28 April, 2024: Outreach Programme with Social Welfare

Relevance

Spreading Awareness about Education, Digital Literacy and Responsible use of Technology.

As part of the Viksit Bharat–Sankalp Yuva Abhiyan, the NSS Unit of Government Degree College, Drang at Narla organized an outreach programme with strong social welfare relevance. The initiative aimed at creating awareness among students and the local community about the role of youth in nation-building, digital awareness and social responsibility. The programme included a Viksit Bharat Pledge, a 3-kilometre awareness rally, through which the volunteers reached nearby villages, visited Chukku School and surrounding areas. During the rally, the students interacted with local residents and students, spreading awareness about education, digital literacy, and responsible use of technology.

Special emphasis was laid on digital literacy and mobile phone usage. NSS Cadet Priyanka addressed students of Chukku School and community members, highlighting the positive and negative impacts of mobile phone usage at home and in the surrounding community. She sensitized them about the importance of responsible phone use, digital discipline, online safety, and the need to balance technology with education and social life. The outreach activity was conducted successfully under the guidance of the college administration and NSS Programme Officers. Overall, the programme proved to be meaningful by empowering younger students, promoting digital literacy, and reinforcing the vision of a developed, inclusive, and responsible India (Viksit Bharat).
